

Superior Tonic Herb Chart

- Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) believes that all health challenges are caused by imbalances. "Excesses" occur when too much heat, cold, dampness, dryness, phlegm, toxins or stagnation build up. "Deficiencies" stem from a lack of vital energies known as Qi (Vitality), Jing (Essence) or Shen (Mind). Abundant health is considered possible only when the body is in perfect balance. -

Herb	Benefit	Lungs	Spleen	Liver	Kidneys	Heart	Blood	Jing	Qi	Shen
		Organ System						Treasures
American Ginseng (Panax Quinquefolium , Xi Yang Shen)	American Ginseng differs from Panax Ginseng in that it is cooling rather than warming. Good for those with heat conditions, smokers, and those living in smoggy areas. Noted for its ability to promote the secretion of bodily fluids. Helps to moisten the lungs. Great energy tonic for those in hot climates.	X	X					X	X	X
Asparagus Root (Tan Men Dong)	Asparagus root is widely used to maintain beautiful skin, increase vitality, and establish a happy outlook on life. It is thought to help balance the entire body. Good lung tonic for those that smoke, live in desert climates or are regularly exposed to smog. Helps lungs extract oxygen from the air we breathe, and help remove toxins from the respiratory tract.	X			X	X		X	X	X
Astragalus Root (Huang Qi)	Astragalus is believed to strengthen the primary energy of the body, and to improve ALL metabolic functions. Special benefit to the respiratory and eliminative functions. Known as a potent physiological energizer and for helping to benefit muscle tone. Extremely important in helping the skin eliminate toxins.	X	X						X
Codonopsis Root (Dang Shen)	Codonopsis is among the most widely used of all Superior Tonic Herbs. It is extremely mild, presents no side effects, but is among the premiere Qi tonics. Blood building agent for those weakened by illness. Promotes functions of both the Spleen and Lung Systems. Enhances interferon production. Blood and immune tonic.	X	X				X		X
Cordyceps (Dong Chong Xia)	Replenishes deep rooted energy lost to excessive exertion, stress, illness, injury or aging. A kidney tonic that supports sexual functions, brain power, skeletal integrity, and healing ability. Widely used to overcome backaches. Potent lung tonic, beneficial to those who require strong respiration from exercise or injury. Shown to help resist a wide range of pathogenic bacteria, fungi and viruses.	X			X			X	X
Dong Quai (Angelica Sinensis)	Blood tonic helping people treat anemia and can help rebuild red blood cells after illness, injury or surgery. Increases the volume of blood. TCM's most universal gynecological herb, and is used in formulas to treat painful or lack of menstruation, premenstrual syndrome, infertility and menopausal distress. Helpful for skin blemishes, urticaria, eczema, neurodermatitis.		X	X			X
Eleuthero Root (Siberian Ginseng , Acanthopanax)	Eleuthero Root is a tremendous adaptogen and is known as a premiere tonic for the adrenal glands. Increases physical strength, sharpens concentration, increases visual abilities and healing power. Promotes lean body weight and both long and short-term energy. Widely used to prevent altitude and motion sickness. Minimizes stress damage.	X	X	X	X	X		X	X
Epimedium (Yin Yang Huo)	Epimedium is considered to be the most powerful aphrodisiac herb derived from plant sources. It is very famous for its capacity to strengthen the sexual power of men, and in some cases for women. Though it is said to be strengthening to the body as a whole, its remarkable rejuvenating and invigorating effects on the sexual functions are legendary in China. Epimedium, known as "Passionate Goat Herb" in China, increases sexual desire, increases sperm production and stimulates sensory nerves.			X	X			X	X
Eucommia Bark (Du Zhong)	Eucommia Bark is remarkably potent for building a strong, flexible skeletal system. Also strengthens bones, ligaments and tendons. It is among the finest of all kidney tonics. Beneficial for those needing help with endocrine or sexual function. Mild diuretic and anti-inflammatory. Eases symptoms of high blood pressure and hypertension.			X	X			X
